

Please do not change Indiana's call list. If you change these rules I will probably go from one or two call a day to 10-20 calls per day. Please leave them as they stand just because we can afford a phone does not give those telemarketer the right to invade my privacy which is my home. I am 28 yrs old and currently disable so I home with my elder and these calls are bothersome and ryde.